

Tree radar investigations

D F Clark Bionomique Ltd have purchased a Tree Radar Unit™ (TRU™). This equipment scans the ground for roots and tree stems to assess tree condition in a quick and non invasive way.

We believe that this equipment can help local authorities

Find out where tree roots are to -

- Provide absolute evidence in planning inquiries and tree preservation order objections and appeals
- Plan for new council development projects
- Demonstrate the presence or absence of tree roots in legal disputes

Find out about tree condition by -

- Scanning trunks for defects. Quick and easy method to help manage your tree stock
- Scanning for root health

Call us for a free competitive quotation 01621 740876

sharon@dfclark.co.uk

07930 760104

graham.underhill@dfclark.co.uk

07930 760089

paul.allen@dfclark.co.uk

07930 760028

